

Dr Scott Cohen

Dr Scott Cohen is Director of Postgraduate Research Programmes for the Faculty of Business, Economics and Law at the University of Surrey (UK), and a senior lecturer in Surrey's School of Hospitality and Tourism Management. His research centres on sociological and consumer behaviour issues in tourism, transport and leisure contexts, with particular interests in sustainable mobility and in lifestyle travel. Scott has published widely since completing his PhD from the University of Otago (NZ) in 2009, including high impact outlets such as Annals of Tourism Research, Journal of Transport Geography, Journal of Sustainable Tourism, Tourism Management, Journal of Travel Research, and Mobilities. He is co-author of Lifestyle Mobilities: Intersections of Travel, Leisure and Migration (Ashgate, 2013) and Understanding and Governing Sustainable Tourism Mobility (Routledge, 2014). Scott has been awarded as an "Emerging Scholar of Distinction" by the International Academy for the Study of Tourism (2013). He serves as a Resource Editor in Sociology for Annals of Tourism Research, an Editorial Board member for Current Issues in Tourism and as Book Review Editor for Anatolia: An International Journal of Tourism and Hospitality Research.
